Ep.05

and let's start stand on the position where your name is 学級裁判開廷!!
CLASS TRIAL
i can't believe togami's killer is among us but if we don't find the killer, we will die, right? we have no choice 03

In order to prove that the killer isn't one of us First of all. Let's take stock of the situation togami's body was found under the innermost table of the main hall near him there were nightvision goggles a knife with luminous paint, under the table there was a sticker with the same paint
The time of death was 11 30 He was murdered with many cuts from venter to throat togami was certainly killed during the blackout and the weapon is estimated to be about 5mm in diameter long and fine

!?
..i'm not the killer !
the most suspicious is pekoyama!
if that's true
she said she isn't the killer!
how could we believe her?! pekoyama was in the office..near the switch!
it's not like that!
first you turned out the switch and caused a blackout. then you killed him in the chaos with the knife!

論破!!
what you said is wrong!
the blackout wasn't caused by the switch !
and
the switch was too high for Pekoyama no, that's wrong!
maybe she switched it off with wireless isn't it just an electrical overload?
i would say...
ah!
there's also a chance that she randomly hit it with a stone 06

同意
ah! so i'm right!
i agree with you
in this way, if the time is set already, no matter where they are, they're able to cause a blackout and the aircons in the main hall and office which were set to the same time of his death the things that caused the blackout are probably those 3 irons in the storage room
AUTO COOL DRY FAN HEAT
30c
AUTO MUCH MID LOW CLEAN
actually as soon as i reached the office i had stomachache so i couldn't leave toilet can we stop talking about this topic? that's right, and since pekoyama has been hidding in the toilet for so long she must have been shitting 07

what level of hope will you show me?
hinata kun
no problem! we don't have to worry i'm starting to wonder whether we can find him but this killer is really tricky this kind of event is just a stepping stone, afterall there's no way we could lose they're just a murderer, right? he can't even be compared to us embodiments of hope 08

that's why... hope will win at the end just believe in it!
huh?
what are you talking about?
huh?
what's wrong with you..
koma-eda
there can't be a killer among us... that's what you said, right..? did i?
why don't we talk about the case instand of those things?

however now that we have finally understood how the black out was caused we have to explain what happened next no matter whether it's setting aircon time secretly or preparing irons ah seems that any of us could have done it tsk what are you trying to say ?

at the end we are unable to find a single clue about the killer even if we carry on talking about what we already know about the crime we can't find the culprit, right?

something like this..
but we can't do anything about it because there's no culprit among us

I really hate this! we are comrades... I don't want to do this!
it's enough!
that's different from what you said before!
that
I hate it too! please let me go home!
I...
we're suspecting each other like this... really, I don't know what's the right thing to do anymore it's not bad even if we don't find the killer if everyone say so I... I will feel the same way!
don't say such thing
this
this thing I hate it too...
if we don't find the killer, we'll all die!
calm down everyone!

then how did togami die???
we are comrades right?
among comrades how could we kill each other that's not the matter!
we should just give up!
we still have no clue of who the killer could be i mean
what you said is wrong
think so

because
don't we know the way to find out the culprit already?
you know who the killer is is this what you mean?
what did you say ???
mh
then .. mind telling us?
where does that clue come from?
no, i don't know yet however.. there's definitely a clue which can lead us to the culprit. i think how did the culprit reach the table in the dark right!

even if it had glowing paint on it, the knife was fixed to the internal side of the table let's think about how the culprit obtained the knife first the culprit must have used the lamp wire as lead
If we consider the map kozumi drew... and... the only one who could do so was...
the wire..?

komaeda
could it be that you are the killer?
i-i the killer ...?

th-this is co-incidence too!

but... komaeda, when you were cleaning you had many chances to place the knife this is just a coincidence!

no matter how you think about it, so many coinciden ces toge- ther are suspicious so this is how things are the weird talking bef- ore was just to make us lose motiva- tion and to cover your guiltiness there must be finger- prints on the knife oh, right the one proposing to use the old loadge was koma- eda too right?

koma- eda
if you have objections, just speak honestly i don't want to believe this either uh uuuu uuh
even if we can't say if he's the culprit or not, we have enough proof to think he's suspicious

how can you explain it !?
to think that you're actually the culprit who killed togami ..... you're the one who investigated with me. also you're so kind to me..

NN..
NN..NGH
NNNNGGHH!!

HA HA AH
HA HA HA

AH, HA HA

AH, HA HA HA HA

AH, HA

HA HA HA HA

h a h ! !
this is so wonde-rful..
only you who have super high school level talent could win against tha despair of friand a death
.....
If I may start from conclusion you're correct every-thing was my doing it was me who used the power cord to find the table in the dark it was also me who set up the knife under the table before party started it was also me who set up the power outage how could someone like me trick you guys?

It can't be called tricking!
you
you've been tricking us all along i know better than anyone else that i'm not an incredible person... even if i wanted to have dreams and hope, they would be foolish thoughts even with effort, it's simply brazen i'm with no doubt the worst, the most evil, the most ignorant, the lowest person on earth who can't accomplish anything
.....
i didn't cheat. afterall my talent is ah, i'd like to correct one thing about the lottery to choose who would get the cleaning duty..
OH NO!
this man is definitely the type who used to kill his neighbor's pets when he was a kid 23

"luck" ...!
super high school level
let's start voting!
monokuma
then ...
since we know who the killer is let's finish it quickly
